1. The foreign missions visiting Bucharest have now been officially forbidden to place wreathes on the monument of the unknown soldier. This traditional ceremony has been neglected for a long time, but the ban is official for the first time. From now on the same ceremony will take place at the monument of the "Soviet hero liberator." This monument was erected in front of the building of the Ministry for Foreign Affairs in place of another monument which had previously been there. The latter monument was removed a long time ago. It was dedicated to teachers who died in World War I.
2. It should be noticed that all new buildings occupied or administered by the Communist Party bear the Crest of the Republic on their facade. There is always another crest on the buildings but the space usually bearing the coat of arms is blank.
